

PART 1 - On The Road

Adriatic Sea, rented motorcycle BMW R1250 GS, and happy US.....

“The Motorcycle And The Sea” (Ernest Hemingway would be proud)

Our fleet

Bob (guide)
Gunther and Christi
Rebecca and Me

Croatia
USA
USA

Suzuki 800 V-Strom
BMW R1200 GSA
BMW R1250 GS

(NOTE : Christi is Rebecca's cousin)

Narrow country roads of Mediterranean Europe.....

As you can see there are three cases on this bike – two side panniers and a top case. Looks like a lot of space, right ?
But the reality is that these 3 cases teach you how to wear one T-shirt for a week, and how to dry your socks by a hair dryer in a hotel room 😊

Very "romantic" ride through some ancient vineyards.....

These “wild boar warning” signs are everywhere. But I believe that we are more dangerous to them than they are to us. One night we had one of them for dinner, and it was not the other way around !

Where's Waldo? No, the real question is "Where's Christi?"

PART 2 - Krka National Park

It is a paradise where a lot of movies were filmed

PART 3 - Zadar & Hvar

Dusk in Zadar city, accented with the “lady in red”.....

An evening on Hvar island

PART 4 - Sailing

When in Zadar we rented a sail boat for one night.
Obviously this had to start with a bottle of champagne.....

I love boats and therefore I really didn't want to return this one back to the owner..... 😞

PART 5 - Dubrovnik

When in Dubrovnik everybody must see this medieval fortress (we saw it), the old town (we saw it), the port (we saw it), the cathedral (we saw it), and so on.....

...but there are other less known places in Dubrovnik area which are so beautiful and nobody pays attention to them.
For example this one!

.....or forgotten places like these two.....

This is me and Gunther relaxing (or in Gunther's case "drowning") in a salty-water-pool at the Lokrum Island next to Dubrovnik

PART 6 - Split

We climbed this tower all the way up (ouch!), and all the way down (ouch! ouch!)...

I volunteered doing the windows cleaning....

Split after dark....

Split (as a city) needs to be “redesigned” – Rebecca can fit in but I can’t..... 😊

PART 7 - Ferries

“Manual” ferry in Zadar.....

Hopping from island to island was a big part of this trip...

On one ferry I met a biker from the local Split motorcycle club. Pretty cool dude!

PART 8 - Roofs

.....I mean "no roofs".....

PART 9 - Miscellaneous Croatia moments

Croatian version of "Great Wall of China"

Croatian version of “Golden Gate Bridge”

Croatian version of "AC/DC Hells Bells"

As Americans we love big weapons.....

Gunther looks exactly like general MacArthur (and that is not a compliment) 😊 .....

Singing Riding in the rain.....

My new girlfriend (don't tell Rebecca)....

Street dinner in Split

Our guide Bob (in the middle of the group). Fantastic guide, big Croatian patriot, and such a great person!
This is our “good-bye-dinner” with 2 bottles of local liquor “rakija” .....
